Alec joined the Class Actions Group in 2022.

Prior to joining Koskie Minsky, Alec clerked for the judges of the Court of Appeal for Ontario and practiced at a leading litigation boutique in Toronto, with a focus on complex commercial matters and insolvency litigation.

Alec graduated from the McGill Faculty of Law in 2019. During law school, Alec served as Director of Research for the Legal Information Clinic at McGill and worked as a student clerk for the Quebec Court of Appeal. He holds degrees in History from McGill University and the University of Oxford.

Alec is fluently bilingual in English and French, and admitted to practice in both Ontario and Quebec.
