Aryan Ziaie is an associate in Koskie Minsky's class action group.

Prior to joining Koskie Minsky in 2020, Aryan practised commercial litigation at a prominent Toronto firm. He represented individuals and institutions in a range of matters, including complex contractual and shareholder disputes, employment litigation, professional negligence claims, construction and real estate litigation, and insolvency litigation. He appeared at all levels of court in Ontario.

Aryan received his Juris Doctor from the University of Toronto in 2015. During his final year, Aryan participated in the Warren K. Winkler Class Actions Moot and received the Joan Lax Memorial Award, a prize awarded to the top oralist in the competition. He also served on the Executive Committee of Downtown Legal Services, a legal clinic operated by the University of Toronto that provides free legal services to low-income individuals across the city.
