Barbara is an associate in the Pension and Employee Benefits Group. She provides advice and representation to employees and pensioners on a broad range of pension, benefits and employment issues, including those affected by insolvency proceedings. This includes assisting current and former employees with recovering amounts owed to them from insolvent employers for wages, severance and benefits including post-retirement benefits.

In addition to pension and benefit issues, Barbara also provides advice to clients on a wide array of privacy, data management, cybersecurity, and compliance matters. This includes drafting policies and procedures, assessing and advising on risks and privacy breaches.
