Brittany is an associate in Koskie Minsky's Pension and Employee Benefits Group, specializing in Pension Fund Investments. Brittany's practice involves advising pension and other benefit funds with respect to their investments, both in the traditional and alternative asset classes. She also has experience advising pension and other benefit funds to ensure their investments are compliant with Canadian and provincial pension legislation. Brittany frequently negotiates on behalf of clients with respect to their investment management agreements.

Brittany attended Osgoode Hall Law School of York University, where she graduated in the top 10% of her class. During her time at Osgoode, Brittany acted as a Research Assistant, Dean's Fellow in Professor Philip Girard's Property Law class, and as a Dean's Tutor. Brittany has completed the CPA In-Depth Tax Course.
