Brittany is an associate in Koskie Minsky's Pension and Employee Benefits Group, specializing in the Taxation of Pensions and Benefits and Pension Fund Investments. Brittany has experience in a wide range of matters including domestic and international transactions, corporate reorganizations and restructuring, executive compensation, and personal and trust taxation. Brittany also has experience advising taxpayers on Canada Revenue Agency audits, objections, voluntary disclosure and taxpayer relief applications, and collections matters. Brittany is currently enrolled in the CPA Canada In-Depth Tax Course. Prior to joining Koskie Minsky, Brittany worked as a Tax Associate at a law firm affiliated with an international accounting firm.

Brittany attended Osgoode Hall Law School of York University, where she graduated in the top 10% of her class. During her time at Osgoode, Brittany acted as a Research Assistant, Dean's Fellow in Professor Philip Girard's Property Law class, and as a Dean's Tutor.
