Charles is a keen advocate with a drive to right wrongs. His career has focused on getting justice for his clients on issues that matter to them and society more broadly. He has appeared before different levels of court in Ontario, the Federal Courts, as well as several administrative tribunals.

Prior to joining Koskie Minsky, Charles litigated test cases at Canada's leading public interest environmental law organization. He also served as a judicial law clerk for the Ontario Superior Court of Justice. Charles received his law degree from the University of Toronto and proudly assisted low-income clients at Downtown Legal Services (student legal aid clinic) throughout his studies.
