Lauren is an associate lawyer in the Labour Group. She first joined the firm as a summer student in 2015, and returned to complete her articles in the Labour and Pensions Departments.

Lauren is originally from Northern Ontario, and a proud graduate of the inaugural class of the Bora Laskin Faculty of Law at Lakehead University.

While in law school, Lauren was a caseworker at Lakehead University Community Legal Services, and acted as a research assistant to the Dean and other professors. Lauren won several awards for academic achievement and represented the school at the Wilson Equality Law Moot.
