Nathalie joined the Class Actions Department in 2019, after summering and articling at Koskie Minsky.

Nathalie completed her J.D. at Western University. During law school, she worked as a mediator and managed the legal clinic's Dispute Resolution Centre. She also participated in various advocacy competitions: winning the Cherniak Trial Advocacy Competition, winning the International Space Law Advocacy Competition, finalizing in the Lerner LLP Appellate Advocacy Competition, and representing Canada abroad through to the semi-finals of the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition.

Prior to law school, Nathalie worked as a trade union representative throughout her studies in philosophy and political science at McGill University.
