

Appellate Court Practice

The lawyers in Koskie Minsky's Appellate Court practice area have broad experience in prosecuting and responding to appeals from decisions rendered by all manner of courts and tribunals including numerous precedent setting appellate decisions in the Ontario Court of Appeal, other provincial appellate courts, and before the Supreme Court of Canada.

Details

Our industry-leading practitioners handle appeals of decisions made in the civil courts, as well as awards by arbitrators and administrative tribunals. We have extensive experience in a range of legal areas including: professional liability; bankruptcy and restructuring; class actions and certifications; complex commercial litigation; products liability; construction litigation; insurance litigation; employment law; human rights; pension and benefits; judicial reviews; labour law; and real property matters.