

Commercial Litigation

The Commercial Litigation group at Koskie Minsky offers extensive experience representing clients at all levels of the Ontario Courts, both trial and appellate, and before public and professional tribunals. We represent professional bodies and institutions, businesses and individual clients.

Details

Koskie Minsky's Commercial Litigation practice group is recognized as a leader in this area throughout Ontario. Our group's practitioners are equipped to manage litigation for the full range of commercial litigation matters, including partnership disputes, income tax and real property issues. We are committed to providing proactive and prompt advice in order to reach the most efficient, cost effective and timely resolution.

Our lawyers are not only strong advocates, but also actively promote alternate dispute resolution methods, including mediation and arbitration.
