

Privacy and Compliance: Labour Law

Privacy law is an emerging area with wide ranging effects on trade unions and their members. At Koskie Minsky LLP our lawyers have the experience to assist Unions with navigating privacy legislation including in obtaining access to information, responding to requests for information, and best practices to meet PIPEDA obligations. We frequently appear before arbitrators, labour boards and other specialized tribunals concerning matters with a privacy law dimension.