

Labour Law

We are one of Canada's most distinguished union-side legal teams, serving unions, workers and professional groups in the public and private sectors.

We are among the leading experts in construction industry labour relations – and also have broad experience representing clients in the entertainment, public, manufacturing, retail food, health care, education, communication, and airline sectors.

We represent our clients' interests before arbitrators and arbitration boards (including both rights and interest arbitrations), labour boards and other specialized tribunals. As well, we represent our clients before all levels of the courts, including the Supreme Court of Canada, on matters such as judicial review, injunction applications and Charter of Rights issues.

While our practice is centered in Ontario, our lawyers are frequently consulted by trade unions across Canada, and we have appeared on their behalf before labour boards and courts in other provinces, and in the federal jurisdiction.

Koskie Minsky's Labour Law practice is top-ranked nationally according to The Canadian Legal Expert Directory, Best Lawyers in Canada and Chambers Canada.
