

Employment Standards

We advise union and individual clients regarding employment standards legislation and regulation, including any disputes or litigation before the appropriate tribunals. As well, we provide advice and guidance to clients in situations where employment standards issues overlap with collective agreement interpretation and application.

We have assisted clients in lobbying governments for changes in the relevant legislation and regulations.