

Pension Fund Investments

Koskie Minsky advises administrators, institutional clients and trade unions on a variety of investment law issues, including governance of investment funds and managed assets, best practices and regulatory compliance, shareholder rights and proposals, environmental, social and governance issues, and securities litigation. We have extensive experience advising boards, administrators and institutional investors across Canada.

In order to provide services to our clients, we draw on our firm's depth of experience in the Canadian pension and benefits sector, and complimentary expertise in the core practice areas of bankruptcy and restructuring, corporate and commercial law, employment law, labour law, litigation, taxation, trusts and estates.
