The Plaintiffs

2. The plaintiff, Alexander Harvey ("Harvey"), is an individual residing in Toronto, Ontario. Harvey is a former member of the Plan in receipt of his pension. He is part of the group of employees whose employment was terminated due to the Partial Wind Up. Harvey is also a member of Canada Life Canadian Pension Plan Members' Rights Group (CLPENS) which is a voluntary, unincorporated association of members and former members of the Plan. CLPENS represents approximately 900 members of the proposed Class and approximately 370 members of the proposed Partial Wind Up Sub-Class. Harvey worked for the Company from November 1971 and retired in September 2003.

3. The plaintiff, David Kidd ("Kidd"), is an individual residing in Weston, Ontario and is also a former member of the Plan and member of CLPENS. Kidd worked for the Company from January 1986 and retired on or about February 2004. He is also part of the Partial Wind Up.

4. The Plaintiff, Jean Paul Marentette ("Marentette"), is an individual residing in London, Ontario and is a former member of the Plan. Marentette worked for the Company between March 25, 2002 and April 12, 2004. He is also part of the Partial Wind Up.

The Plan

5. The Company entered into a Trust Agreement dated December 31, 1957 (the "1957 Trust Agreement") with three individual trustees, for the purpose of providing pension benefits to the Company's Canadian employees and agents. The coinciding pension plan provisions were set out under the Company's Canadian Staff Pension Fund Regulations which were attached as Schedule A to the 1957 Trust Agreement. This 1957 Trust Agreement, was referred to in later years as The Canada Life Assurance Company Trusteed Canadian Staff Pension Fund (1958). This was a defined contribution pension plan that became a defined benefit plan in 1988. The federal Registration Number is 23310.

6. Another pension fund called the Trusteed Canadian Agents' Pension Fund, a combination of a defined benefit and contribution plan, was established to cover agents' commissions which were not covered under the Company's Trusteed Canadian Staff Pension Fund (1958). In 1968, all agents changed their employment status from employee to self-employed and their pension credits earned while employees are held in the Trusteed Canadian Agents' Pension Fund. The federal Registration Number is 23002.

7. The Plan was established on or about December 31, 1964 as a defined benefit pension plan for the Company's Canadian office employees. The Plan was originally named the Canada Life Assurance Company Trusteed Canadian Staff Pension Fund (1965) but was renamed The Canada Life Canadian Employees Pension Plan effective January 1, 1997, following its merger with The Company's Trusteed Canadian Staff Pension Fund (1958) and The Company's Trusteed Canadian Agents' Pension Fund.

8. The benefits accrued since December 31, 1996 under the three merged pension plans, are now included under the Plan.

9. The Plan is registered as a pension plan under the Ontario Pension Benefits Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.P-8, as amended (the "PBA") and under the Income Tax Act, R.S.C. 1985, c.1, under Registration No. 354563.

10. The Plan is funded through a trust agreement between the Company and individual trustees of the Fund (the "Trust Agreement"). The current trustees are the defendants A.P. Symons, D. Allen Loney and James R. Grant (the "Trustees").

The Defendants

11. The Company is a corporation incorporated pursuant to the laws of Canada, carrying on business as a provider of life insurance, financial services and pension fund administration services. It is headquartered in Toronto, Ontario. The Company is the employer or former employer of each of the plaintiffs and the members of the class, and is the sponsor and administrator of the Plan.

12. As stated above, the defendants, A.P. Symons, D. Allen Loney and James R. Grant, are the current Trustees of the Fund. A. P. Symons resides in Markham, Ontario. D. Allen Loney resides in Toronto, Ontario. James R. Grant resides in London, Ontario.

The Class

13. The proposed class includes:

- (a) a Main Class comprised of all persons, wherever resident, who are members, former members and other persons entitled to benefits or payments under the Plan between the date the Company ceased paying all costs and expenses in connection with the Fund and the date an order is made certifying this action as a class proceeding or such other date as this Court may determine, and their estates and beneficiaries; and

- (b) a Partial Wind Up Sub-Class comprised of all persons, wherever resident, who are members, former members and other persons entitled to benefits or payments under the Plan, and who are affected by the Partial Wind Up declared as at July 10, 2003, and their estates and beneficiaries.

Summary of Claim

History of Plan and Trust

14. The original trust agreement for the Plan was established on December 31, 1964 (the "1964 Trust Agreement").

15. The earliest Plan provisions were "Regulations" dated February 12, 1965 that were attached as Schedule A to the 1964 Trust Agreement (the "1965 Regulations").

16. According to s. 2 of the 1965 Regulations, the Fund was established "for the purpose of providing pensions for employees eligible under these Regulations".

17. Article 8(b) of the 1964 Trust Agreement prohibits any amendments being made to the Trust Agreement by the Trustees that result in the return of any portion of the Fund to the Company. The provision reads:

(b) No such alteration or modification shall result in the return of any portion of the Fund to the Company.

18. Article 10 (c) of the 1964 Trust Agreement as originally drafted indicates that if the trust fund is ever dissolved, any monies remaining in the fund after paying for all the annuities and deferred annuities in terms of contributions made by any of the contributors, are to be returned to the Company. Article 10 in its entirety read:

10. If the Company goes into liquidation, whether voluntarily or compulsorily, otherwise than for the purpose of reconstruction or if the Company gives notice to the Trustees that it will cease to make payments to the Fund, the Trust shall be determined and the Fund shall be realized and, subject to the payment thereout of all costs, charges and expenses properly so payable, the net proceeds of such realization and any monies then in hand shall be applied by the Trustees (so far as the funds available permit) to the following purposes and with the respective priorities in the sequence in which they are set out –

- (a) in the purchase of annuities for each person then in receipt of a Retirement or Death Benefit from the Fund and each person who has then attained his normal retirement date but whose Retirement Benefit from the Fund has not commenced, such annuities to be as nearly as possible of the same kind, amount and duration as the benefit such person is or would be entitled to receive from the Fund.
- (b) in the purchase of deferred annuities for every other Contributor, such annuities to be as nearly as possible of the same kind, amount and duration as the benefit such person is or would be entitled to receive from the Fund based on the contributions he has made to the Fund.
- (c) all monies which remain after purposes (a) and (b) have been completed shall be returned to the Company.

All or part of the annuity to be purchased for any person as aforesaid may, at the option of the Trustees, be provided by assigning and transferring to such person any policy or policies in respect of such person obtained by the Trustees pursuant to Clause 6 hereof.

All annuities purchased or provided by policies assigned and transferred as aforesaid shall be non-commutable and non-assignable. [emphasis added]

19. This original version of article 10(c) did not comply with the applicable rules of the department of National Revenue at the time.

20. The Trust Agreement was amended at a date unknown to the Plaintiffs to preclude the reversion of funds to the Company in the event of the dissolution of the Fund, as had previously been provided in article 10(c). This change is evidenced by the consolidated and restated Trust Agreement and Plan Regulations adopted in February 1989 (the "1989 Trust Agreement") by the Board of Directors of the Company, with an effective date of 1965, in which article 10 reads as follows:

10. If the Company goes into liquidation, whether voluntarily or compulsorily, otherwise than for the purpose of reconstruction or if the Company gives notice to the Trustees that it will cease to make payments to the Fund, the Trust shall be determined and the Fund shall be realized and, subject to the payment thereout of all costs, charges and expenses properly so payable, the net proceeds of such realization and any monies then in hand shall be applied by the Trustees (so far as the funds available permit) to the following purposes and with the respective priorities in the sequence in which they are set out –

- (a) in the purchase of annuities for each person then in receipt of a Retirement or Death Benefit from the Fund and each person who has then attained his normal retirement date but whose Retirement Benefit from the Fund has not commenced, such annuities to be as nearly as possible of the same kind, amount and duration as the benefit such person is or would be entitled to receive from the fund.
- (b) in the purchase of deferred annuities for every other Contributor, such annuities to be as nearly as possible of the same kind, amount and duration as the benefit such person is or would be entitled to receive from the Fund based on the contributions he has made to the Fund.
- (c) all monies which remain after purposes (a) and (b) have been completed shall be applied in such manner as the Trustees may determine to increase the annuities and/or the deferred annuities described in purposes (a) and (b).
- (d) The annuities and deferred annuities to be provided under the terms of subparagraphs (a), (b) and (c) shall not exceed the maximums permitted under clause 9(g) of Revenue Canada Information Circular No. 72-13R8, or such successor federal law, Regulations or administrative rules as apply when such annuities or deferred annuities are established.

All or part of the annuity to be purchased for any person as aforesaid may, at the option of the Trustees, be provided by assigning and transferring to such person any policy or policies in respect of such person obtained by the Trustees pursuant to Clause 6 hereof.

All annuities purchased or provided by policies assigned and transferred as aforesaid shall be non-commutable and non-assignable. [emphasis added]

21. The 1989 Trust Agreement provides in article 10 that on dissolution of the Fund, all monies available after purchasing the annuities and deferred annuities required under the Plan, are to be used to increase the annuities. The amended Article 10(c) does not permit reversion of surplus funds to the Company in the event of Fund dissolution or wind up. When a pension plan does not provide for the withdrawal of surplus money on wind up, the law of trusts and s. 79(4) of the PBA, among other provisions, require that surplus money be distributed among the plan members, former members and any other persons entitled to payments under the pension plan on the date of the wind up.

22. The 1989 Trust Agreement also contains the following provisions:

8. The Trustees may at any time by instrument in writing signed by not less than three of them and with the consent in writing of the Board of Directors of the company alter or modify any or all of the provisions of the this Trust Deed or of the attached Regulations, provided that:

(a) No alteration or modification shall alter the main purpose of the scheme from that of the provision of pensions for the employees of the Company on retirement, and

(b) No such alteration or modification shall result in the return of any portion of the Fund to the Company. [emphasis added]

23. Pursuant to these provisions in the 1964 and 1989 Trust Agreements, the Fund was impressed with an irrevocable trust, effective December 31, 1964, to be held for the exclusive benefit of the members and former members of the Plan and their beneficiaries. The terms of the trust do not entitle the Company to any assets in the fund including surplus assets, nor does the Company have the power to revoke the terms of the trust to permit reversion of Fund assets to themselves.

24. According to the Actuarial Valuation prepared as at December 31, 1988, the Fund had a surplus of $83,171,000. Since that time, the Company has not contributed to the Fund and has taken continuous contribution holidays. Despite the "holidays" the surplus in the Fund has grown.

25. On or about December 31, 1993, contrary to the terms of the 1964 and 1989 Trust Agreements, changes were made to the Trust Agreement (the "1993 Amendments"). Article 8 of the 1993 Trust Agreement was amended to read:

The Company may at any time, by instrument in writing and with notice to the Trustees, alter or modify any or all of the provisions of the Trust Deed, provided that, no alteration or modification shall increase the Clause 4 Duties, or the liabilities of the Trustees, without their prior written consent.

Accordingly, the irrevocable trust was amended unlawfully in that the possibility of reversions to the Company was raised.

26. Despite these changes, however, Article 10 was not amended and continued to provide that, should the Plan be dissolved, the Trustees are to use any Surplus to purchase additional annuities for employees and pensioners.

27. The 1993 Trust Agreement further allowed the Company to seek reimbursement for Plan Expenses contrary to the terms of the prior Trust Agreement. Article 4 of the 1993 Trust Agreement sets out the Duties of the Trustees which includes, in part, the following:

...(h) upon the request of the Plan Administrator, pay for any usual and reasonable expenses incurred in the administration of the Fund and the Plan within 18 months prior to the date of request, ...

28. Further, Article 5 of the 1993 Trust Agreement relating to the duties of the Plan Administrator, was amended to include the following duty:

...(d)(iii) obtain from the Trustees reimbursement of expenses and charges incurred by the Plan Administrator and the Company relating to the operation of the Fund and the Plan as and when requested by the Company...

29. The 1993 Amendments purporting to permit the Company to revoke surplus entitlement and permit payment of Plan Expenses from the Fund constitute an unlawful revocation of the trust that was established for the exclusive benefit of the members and former members of the Plan and their beneficiaries.

30. Effective January 1, 1997, the Plan was "merged" with The Canada Life Assurance Company Trusteed Canadian Staff Pension Fund (1958) and The Canada Life Assurance Company Trusteed Canadian Agents' Pension Fund. A single "consolidated" Plan was created and the associated funds were merged into a single fund.

31. The Plan, as consolidated and restated effective January 1, 1997 (the "1997 Plan"), contains new provisions relating to surplus assets in the Pension Fund. Section 4.02(c) reads:

(c) Application of Surplus Assets

In the event there are Surplus Assets in the Pension Fund, according to the actuarial valuation report referred to in paragraph (a) above, the Company may, at its discretion, use such Surplus Assets or a portion thereof to offset the amount of Company contributions referred to in paragraph (a) above.

32. Section 17.06 of the 1997 Plan states:

17.06 Surplus Assets

If, after payment of all accrued benefits under the Plan as described in Section 5 (Retirement Benefits), Section 6 (Indexation of Pensions),

Section 8 (Benefits on Termination of Employment), Section 9 (Pre-Retirement Death Benefits) and Section 10 (Benefits on Disability) to Members or Field Management Members, their respective Spouses, Beneficiaries and estates and payment of all expenses has been made, there remain Surplus Assets in the Pension Fund, such Surplus Assets shall revert to the Company or be used as the Company may direct, subject to the provisions of the Pension Benefits Act and the Income Tax Act. [emphasis added]

33. The plaintiffs plead such amendments to the Plan were unlawful and of no force and effect.

34. The Trust Agreement was also amended and restated effective January 1, 1997 (the "1997 Trust Agreement"). Article 10 of the 1997 Trust Agreement, however, still required that on dissolution or wind up, any additional funds that are not required to pay for the annuities and deferred annuities accrued under the Plan, are to be used to increase the annuities or deferred annuities of the Plan members. The plaintiffs plead that the provisions of the Trust Agreement govern over those of the Plan text.

35. The Trust Agreement was restated effective August 7, 2002 (the "2002 Trust Agreement") and article 13 provides:

If the Plan is discontinued, in whole or in part, the assets of the Plan shall be distributed in accordance with the directions of the person who is the Plan Administrator for the purposes of the Pension Benefits Act (Ontario) provided that such Plan Administrator certifies to the Trustees that such distributions are in accordance with the terms of the Plan and any applicable approvals from the federal and/or provincial pension regulatory authorities that may be required under applicable federal and/or provincial pension legislation, regulations, policies and administrative practices.

36. The most recent restated Plan text effective January 1, 2003 (the "2003 Plan") contains identical provisions with respect to reversion of Surplus as contained in article 17.06 of the 1997 Plan, set out in paragraph 31 herein.

Entitlement to Surplus on Partial Wind Up

37. The plaintiffs plead that by gradual manipulation of the Plan and Trust Agreement, the Company and the Trustees have acted in bad faith and attempted to revoke an irrevocable trust to permit the Company access to Surplus and defeat the rights of the Class, contrary to the terms of the trust as it stood before the unlawful amendments.

38. On or about July 10, 2003, The Great-West Life Assurance Company ("Great-West") acquired 100% of the outstanding common shares of Canada Life Financial Corporation, the holding company for the Company. The Company became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Great-West on or about July 10, 2003 and, beginning at that time, the operations of the Company and Great-West were combined.

39. On or about July 10, 2003, the Company announced its intention to partially wind up the Plan within the meaning of the PBA, in relation to members of the Plan who were terminated from, retired or resigned voluntarily from the Company as a result of the transaction with Great-West. Section 70(6) of the PBA, as confirmed by the Supreme Court in Monsanto Canada Inc. v. Ontario (Superintendent of Financial Services), [2004] 3 S.C.R. 152, requires the immediate distribution of Surplus on the Partial Wind Up.

40. The notice provided to the plaintiffs and the Class with respect to the Partial Wind Up did not refer to the existence of the Surplus in the Fund or any potential entitlement that the Class, or the Partial Wind Up Sub-Class, may have to any surplus amounts in the Fund. The notice did not provide for the distribution of the Surplus.

41. According to an actuarial valuation of the Plan dated August 2003, the Plan had a solvency surplus of $233,499,000 as at January 1, 2003 and a going concern surplus of $179,911,000.

42. The plaintiffs seek a declaration ascertaining the amount of the Surplus in the Plan at the Partial Wind Up Date, and an accounting of the value of the Surplus required to be distributed as a result of the Partial Wind Up.

43. The plaintiffs seek a declaration that the Plan, and the trust in respect of the Plan, comprise an irrevocable trust held exclusively for the benefit of the members, former members, deferred vested members and their beneficiaries, and any other persons entitled to benefits under the Plan.

44. The plaintiffs further seek a declaration that the Company has no beneficial interest in any assets of the Fund and that no part of the corpus or income of the Fund shall ever revert to the Company.

45. The plaintiffs seek an order requiring the distribution of Surplus attributed to those members of the Partial Wind Up Sub-Class who have a statutory right to such distribution.

Plan Expenses Amendments

46. The 1964 Trust Agreement provided in article 7 that the Company shall pay all costs and expenses in connection with the Fund.

47. At a date unknown to the plaintiffs between 1964 and 1988, expenses related to the investment and administration of the Fund began to be charged to the Fund.

48. The Plan's Financial Statements since at least 1988 combine the three pension plans that were later merged in 1997, including the Plan, The Canada Life Assurance Company Trusteed Canadian Staff Pension Fund (1958) and The Canada Life Assurance Company Trusteed Canadian Agents' Pension Fund (the "Funds"). The Funds have been combined in the Financial Statements since at least 1988 because they have been under common trusteeship since 1965.

49. The earliest financial statement the plaintiffs have in their possession is dated December 31, 1988, which indicates that fees were charged to the Funds that year for specialty growth administration, real estate administration, mortgage services, investment management and other administration fees. Such charges were contrary to article 7 of the Trust Agreement.

50. The 1993 Amendments referred to in paragraphs 26 and 27 herein, require the Trustees to reimburse the Company for all plan expenses. Such amendments are contrary to article 8 of the 1964 and 1989 Trust Agreements which precludes any portion of the Fund being returned to the Company.

51. The Pension Commission of Ontario (later renamed FSCO) required the Company to notify the members of the Plan of the Plan Expenses Amendments. A Notice was sent to members, dated June 1, 1994 that explained that under the Previous Policy, the "Company paid the expenses of the plan directly", but that under the New Policy, "[i]nvestment expenses and the cost of administering the plan will in future, if the Company requests, be paid from the pension fund."

52. The Company transmitted a letter addressed to Canada Life Pensioners and dated August 9, 1994, to the Pension Commission of Ontario. The letter reads:

One change [to the trust documents] permits the trustees to reimburse the Company for any expenses incurred by the Company in the administration of the fund and plans, a fairly normal condition for modern pension trusts. We expect the amount involved each year to be less than 1% of the current surplus.

53. Since the effective date of the Plan Expenses Amendments, more than 1% of the surplus has been used to reimburse the Company for expenses relating to investments and the administration of the Funds.

54. Pursuant to the 1994 Financial Statement, the Company began charging an annual fee to the Funds for administrative and other services rendered by the Company in 1994. The amount included in expenses for 1994, for the three Funds, was $1,871,742 which included $816,996 for 1993.

55. Further, according to the 1994 Financial Statement, Canada Life Investment Management Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, began charging the Funds for investment management services rendered. The amount included in expenses for 1994, for the three Funds, was $599,518 which included $294,264 for 1993.

56. These amounts for Company administration and investment services were added to other costs and expenses that were charged to the Funds, for a total of $2,542,000 in 1994.

57. The following is as complete a summary of the total costs and expense charged to the Funds since 1987, as the plaintiffs are able to provide and is based on the Financial Statements that have been filed by the Company at FSCO:

Year	Total Costs and Expenses
1987	$2,987,000 (partial amount only)
1988	$3,370,000 (partial amount only)

2001	$4,344,000
2002	$3,356,000
2003	$2,848,000

58. Since 1994, these total costs and expenses have included charges for the Company's administrative and investment fees. The following is a summary of just those Company fees, based on Financial Statements filed at the FSCO:

Year	Administrative Fee	Investment Fee
1994	$1,871,742	$599,518

2003	$814,000	$504,000
Totals	$16,191,742	$6,021,813

59. The most recent restated Trust Agreement dated August 7, 2002 requires in Article 8(i) that the Trustees reimburse the Plan administrator for "any reasonable charges, fees, taxes and other expenses, including without limitation any internal expenses of the Plan Administrator and the usual reasonable expenses of any agents of the Plan Administrator incurred in the operation, review, design, amendment and administration of the Plan and investment of the Fund...".

60. The most recent restated Plan is effective January 2003 and contains the following provisions:

14.05 Plan Expenses

All reasonable charges, fees, taxes and other expenses, including, without limitation, any internal expenses of the Plan administrator and the usual and reasonable expenses of any agents of the Plan administrator, incurred in the operation, review, design, amendment and administration of the Plan and the Trust Agreement or the review, administration, use and investment of the Pension Fund, including Surplus Assets, shall be paid from the Pension Fund unless paid directly by the Company. The Trustee shall, if requested, by the Company, reimburse the Company out of the Pension Fund for any such charges, fees, taxes and other expenses which the Company pays directly.

61. These Plan Expenses Amendments constitute a partial revocation and a breach of trust because, among other reasons, they are an unlawful attempt to permit the Company to withdraw trust assets for the benefit of persons who are not beneficiaries of the trust. The Company has no power to revoke the trust held exclusively for the benefit of the Plan members.

Losses and Damages Suffered

62. Due to the defendants' breach of fiduciary obligations, breach of trust and breach of contractual obligations to members of the class, the class has suffered losses and damages. The plaintiffs seek payment of such amounts to all members of the class.

63. The plaintiffs plead and rely upon the provisions of the Class Proceedings Act, 1992, S.O. 1992, c. C-6 and the provisions of the Pension Benefits Act, R.S.O. 1990, Ch. P.8.

64. The plaintiffs propose that this action be tried at the City of Toronto.
