A Settlement May Affect Your Rights.

A court authorized this notice.

- You could be affected by a class action lawsuit involving alleged manipulation of the market for supranational, sub-sovereign and agency bonds (“SSA Bond”).
- The lawsuit alleges that, beginning at least as early as 2005 and continuing through 2015, the Defendants conspired with each other to fix prices in the SSA Bond market. It is alleged that the Defendants communicated directly with each other, including sharing competitively sensitive pricing information, exchanging information about new SSA Bond issues, customers’ trading histories and requests for quotes, in order to coordinate the bond prices they quoted to customers. It is also alleged that the Defendants used interdealer brokers to: keep each defendant apprised of the others’ activities, conceal their trades with each other, access confidential information and manipulate the price information that was broadcast to the SSA Bond market, among other things.
- The lawsuit includes all persons in Canada who, between January 1, 2005 and December 31, 2015, entered either directly or indirectly through an intermediary, and/or purchased or otherwise participated in an investment or equity fund, mutual fund, hedge fund, pension fund or any other investment vehicle that entered into an SSA Bond Transaction. Excluded from the Class are the defendants, their parent companies, subsidiaries, and affiliates.

“SSA Bond Transaction” means any purchase, sale, trade, assignment, novation, unwind, termination, or other exercise of rights or options with respect to any SSA Bond.

“SSA Bond” means any and all supranational, sovereign, sub-sovereign, governmental, quasi-governmental, and agency bonds or debt instruments regardless of the structure, currency, or credit quality.

- Settlements have been reached with Bank of America Corporation, Bank of America, N.A., Bank of America Canada, Bank of America, National Association, Bank of America Merrill Lynch International Limited, Merrill Lynch International, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Inc., Merrill Lynch Canada Inc., Merrill Lynch International Services Limited, Merrill Lynch Financial Assets Inc., and Merrill Lynch Benefits Ltd. and (collectively “Bank of America”) and HSBC Holdings PLC, HSBC Bank USA, N.A., HSBC Securities (USA) Inc., HSBC Bank PLC, HSBC North America Holdings Inc., HSBC Bank Canada, and HSBC USA, Inc. (collectively, “HSBC”) the “Settlement Agreements”). If the Settlement Agreements are approved by the Court and its conditions are satisfied, the settlement will settle, extinguish and bar all claims relating in any way to or arising out of the lawsuit against Bank of America and HSBC (the “Settling Defendants”).

- If the Settlement Agreements are approved, Bank of America will pay CAD $750,000 and HSBC will pay $1,323,529.41 (the “Settlement Amounts”) to settle the class action. Bank of America and HSBC will also provide co-operation to the plaintiffs in order to assist the plaintiffs in pursuing the case against the other defendants. The settlements are a compromise of disputed claims. Bank of America and HSBC do not admit any wrongdoing or liability and disagree with the allegations in the lawsuit. The remaining defendants (who have not settled) do not admit any wrongdoing or liability and disagree with the allegations in the lawsuit.
- The Settlement Amounts will not be distributed at this time. Rather, the Settlement Amounts will be paid into an interest bearing account for the benefit of the Class and may be used to fund disbursements and any adverse award of costs in the case.
- On February 5, 2020 at 9:30 am (ET), there will be a hearing before the Federal Court of Canada (the “Approval Motion”) at which Class Counsel will seek the Court’s approval of the Settlement Agreements and Class Counsel fees. The hearing will be held at the Federal Court of Canada, 180 Queen Street W., Toronto, Ontario.
- The Court has not decided whether the defendants did anything wrong and the case is currently proceeding against the remaining defendants. There is no money available to the Class at this point. However, your rights are affected, and you have a choice to make now.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is there a notice?

This lawsuit has been “certified” as a class action for settlement purposes. This means that the lawsuit meets the requirements for a class action against the “Settling Defendants”. If you are included, you may have legal rights and options before the Court decides whether the claims being made against the Defendants on your behalf are correct. This notice explains all these things.

- TD Securities Limited
- TD Group US Holdings, LLC
- TD Bank USA, N.A

- Barclays Bank PLC
- Barclays Capital Inc.

- Barclays Capital Securities Limited

The settlement also requires the plaintiffs in the Ontario action styled Mancinelli et al. v. Bank of America et al. (Court File No. CV-17-586082-00CP) (the “Ontario Action”) to file a notice of abandonment in the Ontario Action and obtain the court’s approval of that abandonment.

2. What are the settlement benefits?

Settlements have been reached with Bank of America Corporation, Bank of America, N.A., Bank of America Canada, Bank of America, National Association, Bank of America Merrill Lynch International Limited, Merrill Lynch International, Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Inc., Merrill Lynch Canada Inc., Merrill Lynch International Services Limited, Merrill Lynch Financial Assets Inc., and Merrill Lynch Benefits Ltd. (collectively “Bank of America”) and HSBC Holdings PLC, HSBC Bank USA, N.A., HSBC Securities (USA) Inc., HSBC Bank PLC, HSBC North America Holdings Inc., HSBC Bank Canada, and HSBC USA, Inc. (collectively, “HSBC”) (the “Settlement Agreements”). If the Settlement Agreements are approved by the Court and its conditions are satisfied, they will settle, extinguish and bar all claims relating in any way to or arising out of the Proceedings against Bank of America and HSBC.

If the Settlement Agreements are approved, Bank of America has agreed to pay CAD$750,000 and HSBC has agreed to pay $1,323,529.41 (the “Settlement Amounts”) to settle the class action. Bank of America and HSBC have also agreed to provide co-operation to the plaintiffs in order to assist the plaintiffs in pursuing the case against the other defendants. The settlements are a compromise of disputed claims.

The co-operation provided by the Settling Defendants includes the provision to Class Counsel of documents and information relating to transaction data and the underlying allegations in this matter.

Bank of America and HSBC do not admit any wrongdoing or liability and disagree with the allegations in the lawsuit.

In addition, if approved, the settlements preclude the non-settling defendants and any other person or entity who do not opt out from making any claims against Bank of America and HSBC, including claims for contribution and indemnity or other claims over. If the Court ultimately concludes that there is a right of contribution and indemnity or other claim over against Bank of America and HSBC, the Plaintiffs and the Class Members who do not opt out will not be entitled to claim or recover from the non-settling defendants or anyone else that portion of damages. This arrangement is called a “bar order”. Bar orders are common in partial settlements of multi-party actions. If you opt out of this class action, you will not be precluded from making claims against Bank of America or HSBC.

The Settlement Amounts will not be distributed at this time. Rather, the Settlement Amounts will be paid into an interest bearing account for the benefit of the Class and may be used in part to fund the disbursements and any adverse costs award in the case. The Settlement Amounts may be distributed to Class Members at the conclusion of the action, or, if there are more settlements, when a distribution becomes economical. A distribution of the Settlement Amounts will be preceded by a notice to the Class Members, giving them an opportunity to submit a claim form to receive their share of the Settlement Amounts.

3. What is this lawsuit about?

Beginning at least as early as 2005 and continuing through 2015, it is alleged that the Defendants conspired with each other to fix prices in the SSA Bond market. It is alleged that the Defendants communicated directly with each other, including sharing competitively sensitive pricing information, exchanging information about new SSA Bond issues, customers’ trading histories and requests for quotes, in order to coordinate the fixing of the bond prices they quoted to customers. It is also alleged that the Defendants used interdealer brokers to: keep each defendant apprised of the others’ activities, conceal their trades with each other, access confidential information and manipulate the price information that was broadcast to the SSA Bond market, among other things. It is alleged that to give effect to their conspiracy, the Defendants did the following:

- improperly shared confidential client and proprietary trading information;
- executed coordinated trading to influence the price of SSA Bonds;
- monitored the conduct of co-conspirators to ensure secrecy and compliance with the conspiracy; and
- agreed to “stand down” by holding off buying or selling SSA Bonds to benefit co-conspirators.

4. What is a class action?

In a class action one or more people called “representative plaintiffs” sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people with similar claims are called the “Class” or “Class Members”. The court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except those who remove themselves from the Class.

The proposed representative plaintiffs in this case are Joseph S. Mancinelli, Carmen Principato, Douglas Serroul, Luigi Carrozzi, Manuel Bastos and Jack Oliveira acting in their capacity as the Trustees of the Labourers’ Pension Fund of Central and Eastern Canada.

5. Who is a member of the Class?

You are included in this lawsuit if:

you are a person in Canada who, between January 1, 2005 and December 31, 2015, entered either directly or indirectly through an intermediary, and/or purchased or otherwise participated in an investment or equity fund, mutual fund, hedge fund, pension fund or any other investment vehicle that entered into an SSA Bond Transaction. Excluded from the Class are the defendants, their parent companies, subsidiaries, and affiliates.

“SSA Bond Transaction” means any purchase, sale, trade, assignment, novation, unwind, termination, or other exercise of rights or options with respect to any SSA Bond.

“SSA Bond” means any and all supranational, sovereign, sub-sovereign, governmental, quasi-governmental, and agency bonds or debt instruments regardless of the structure, currency, or credit quality.

6. What are the plaintiffs asking for?

The plaintiffs are asking for money or other benefits for the Class. They are also asking for lawyers’ fees of 25% of the Settlement Amounts, plus costs and interest. The lawyers are also seeking to use the Settlement Amount to fund future costs incurred in prosecuting the action.

7. Is there any money available now?

No. The Settlement Amounts will not be distributed at this time. Rather, the Settlement Amounts will be paid into an interest bearing account for the benefit of the Class and may be used in part to fund the disbursements and any adverse costs awards made in the case.

YOUR OPTIONS

ask for a share. If a benefit is obtained for the Class, you may need to take action in order to receive any benefits.
