LEGAL NOTICE

Are You an Indigenous Person Who Was Assaulted at Any Time While Being Held in Custody or Detention by RCMP Officers In the Territories?

A class action may affect your rights. Please read this notice carefully.

The Federal Court has certified a class action lawsuit against the Attorney General of Canada on behalf of Aboriginal Persons (Indian, Inuit or Métis), who allege they were assaulted at any time while being held in custody or detained by RCMP Officers in the Territories and were alive as of December 18, 2016.

If you are a Class Member, you can choose to stay in or leave the Class.

Option 1 – Stay in the class action: To stay in the class action, you do not have to do anything. If money or benefits are obtained, you will be told about how to make a claim. You will be legally bound by all orders and judgments in the class action, and you will not be able to sue Canada separately about the legal claims in this case.

Option 2 – Get out of the class action: If you want to leave the class action, you must submit an Opt-Out Form by March 3, 2025. Opt-Out Forms are available here: northpoliceclassaction.ca. You can also opt out by writing the Administrator at the address below and telling them that you want to be removed from this class action. Please include your name, address, telephone number and/or email address in the letter and have it postmarked by March 3, 2025. If you remove yourself, you cannot get money or benefits from this lawsuit if any are awarded.

The Court has appointed Koskie Minsky LLP and Cooper Regel LLP (“Class Counsel”) to represent the Class. You don’t have to pay Class Counsel to participate. If they get money or benefits for the Class, they may ask for lawyers’ fees and costs which would be deducted from any money obtained or to be paid separately by Canada.
